

Quarter at Aggie Square

AN IMMERSIVE COLLEGIATE EXPERIENCE IN THE CITY

Winter
2022

HEALTH CARE POLITICS AND POLICY

Study and work to gain a deeper understanding of how health policy is developed and implemented in the crucible of politics.

Who should take this experience?

We welcome all students interested in health care who want to understand relevant policy and politics.

This program provides units that can count toward your major or minor.

This Quarter at Aggie Square experience allows students to gain a deeper understanding of the development and implementation of health care policies in the United States.

Students will:

- Acquire practical skills in data analysis, visualization, and interpretation
- Obtain direct experience in a health-policy-related internship
- Network with students from multiple UC campuses, faculty from multiple UC Davis departments, and policymakers and advocates from across the health policy landscape

Application is open for the Winter 2022 Program
Express Interest

Offered in partnership with the UC Center Sacramento.

gas.ucdavis.edu/experiences/
Angela Taylor, Program Coordinator: gas@ucdavis.edu
Cindy Simmons, Associate Director, UCCS: csimmons@ucdavis.edu

Health Care Politics and Policy Program Faculty

Richard Kravitz
Professor, MD, MSPH, Internal Medicine

Scott MacKenzie
Associate Professor,
Political Science

Jordan Kujala
Ph.D. American politics and political methodology, Political Science

Courses & Schedule

	MON	TUES	WEDS	THURS	FRI
9					POL 193
10	Internship	Internship		Internship	POL 108
11	9:00-12:00	9:00-12:00	POL 108 Discussion	9:00-12:00	10:00-12
12		POL 198 (Optional)	Speaker Series
1
2	Internship	Internship	Internship	Internship	POL 196E
3	1:00-5	1:30-5	1:30-5	1:00-5	2:00-4:00
4

POL 108: Politics of Health Care (4 units)
POL 196E: Research Methods in Public Policy (4 units)
POL 192A: Internship in Public Policy (5 units)
POL 193: Policy Analysis Practicum (2 units)
POL 198: Topics in Policy and Research (2 units)

Schedule is subject to change

Internship

Students will work with offices such as the California Governor's Office, state agencies and departments, and non-profit or advocacy groups.

